

SEXUAL ASSAULT

AWARENESS MONTH 2017

"UNSPORTSMANLIKE CONDUCT: COLLEGE FOOTBALL & THE POLITICS OF RAPE"

Monday, March 20

4:00 PM

Konover Auditorium, Dodd Center

In partnership with the Sports Management Department, join us as we welcome freelance writer and journalist, Jessica Luther, to discuss her new book. Luther has been writing about the intersection of sports and sexual violence since 2013. Her latest draws on years of research and reporting, and offers suggestions around transforming culture, both inside and outside of the locker room.

"NO LE DIGAS A NADIE" SCREENING & TALK-BACK WITH ANGY RIVERA

Thursday, March 23

6:00 PM

Puerto Rican/Latin American Cultural Center

No Le Digas a Nadie captures the story of Angy Rivera, a 24 year-old, who courageously shares her parallel journey of being undocumented and surviving sexual abuse. The activist, blogger, and advice columnist will join us to discuss the unique challenges undocumented survivors face as they navigate a complex immigration system.

Sponsored in partnership with PRLACC

SURVIVING SEXUAL ASSAULT: MEN SPEAK OUT

Monday, March 27

1:00 PM

Student Union 304C

Former Army service member and current UConn student, Michael Bidwell, and Navy Veteran Bob Hunter, boldly share their stories and discuss the effects of military sexual trauma.

Sponsored in partnership with Veteran Affairs & Military Programs

TAKE BACK THE NIGHT

Wednesday, April 12

7:00 PM

Student Union Ballroom

An evening of empowerment and healing for survivors of gender-based violence. Join in our solidarity march, speak-out and late night coffee house.

MASCULINITY: AN IMAGINARY FRIEND

Tuesday, April 18

7:00 PM

Student Union Theatre

Former NFL athlete, Wade Davis, will discuss the intersections of race, sexuality, and gender, and explore how traditional messages about masculinity contribute to homophobia and rape culture.

Sponsored in partnership with Athletics, Rainbow Center, Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life, and Sports Management
